Principal's Report:

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT PARENTS' ASSOCIATION MEETING

Brief report from Dr McEwan.

Positions have been advertised for Head of Bednall Centre and Head of Year 11.

The Annual Black and Magenta has been sent out.

We were very pleased with the announcement of former student, Billy Blacker as the latest Rhodes Scholar.

It has been decided that the Arts Department and School won't be running the Magenta and Blacker function next year. There will be opportunities to discuss other School Community events happening next year.

Incoming – Thank you received from Fiona Moroney. See below:

Hi Dayana and Shirl

I just wanted to thank you for the Parents' Associations generosity in supporting Middle School with funding for 3 outdoor tables. Today they were delivered, and we

The plans for the fundraising quiz night are going very well. It will run like other quiz nights. Wine and chocolates for prizes, lucky door prizes. Main prize is an all-inclusive function on M L Engeria boat. There are lots of great items to bid on for the silent auction. A raffle with lots of prizes. A lot more information about the night will be posted on Facebook.

Update re plans - There has been a recent meeting with Miriam and Shane to try and reduce costs by finding Hutchins community contacts to donate goods and services. If we can get things donated or at cost price they are very happy to work with that.

A year 2 parent has arranged for all of the steel to be donated. Which is amazing.

The decision re the Application for a Grant won't be made until the end of the year.

Other Business:

1. Discussion of the Pre-

Through further class meetings and discussions, each Kindergarten class has been able to hone in on area of focus for the remainder of this year. Pre-Kindergarten TW set to work researching and painting images to be presented on a large wall art/canvas. The stunning results of their work, as well as collaboration with the school's graphic designers and canvas providers, can be shared with you when you come over to visit.

Pre-Kindergarten F decided that they would like to ask families and the wider Hutchins community for donations of loose parts to play with and store safely and neatly in the play space. Once appropriate storage solutions are purchased, the children will work with their educators to put together personal letters to send out seeking these loose parts, each hand decorated with care, optimism and hopefulness.

Recently, both classes have also shown increasing interest in planting and gardening, prompting a

2. Future Requests for funding

General discussion about the proper process for members of the School community and/or Staff to request funding from the PA.

All funding requests and funding approvals need to be in accordance with the PA's constitution. Please see a copy of the Constitution attached below.

The PA needs to be given reasonable time to discuss all proposals.

In accordance with the Constitution only the Executive can decide how the PA funds are expended.

The PA Committee will Investigate having the PA Constitution and

Additional special meetings may be called at the discretion of the president upon the request of two members of the general executive.

The AGV shall be held in accordance with the provisions of an annual report.

2. The president shall be elected by the members present at the annual meeting for a term of one year, and shall be eligible for re-election if considered appropriate by the members present.

3. The duties of the president shall be to preside over the meetings of the association and to see that the provisions of the constitution are carried out.

4. The president shall be authorized to call special meetings of the association upon 10 days written notice by a notice addressed to the Secretary and signed by no fewer than 10 members of the school community. Written notice of a special meeting shall be given at least 14 days before the date of such a meeting.

5. The Secretary shall minute each meeting of the Association and shall cause the minutes to be confirmed at each subsequent meeting.

Auditor

The AGM shall elect an auditor or auditors on an annual basis.

Levy
